Start your students playing their way toward a higher level of music literacy, sightreading skill, and success.

The Studio membership includes:

- Access to more than 450 web-based, fully interactive, multimedia learning games for music students -- beginners through Level 5.
- 24/7 unlimited access for you and your students from any Internet-enabled computer, with no software to buy, install, maintain or upgrade.
- Up to 50 students can play from your studio/school and from their homes for the one low monthly subscription fee--$19.95/month.
- A comprehensive music theory and ear training curriculum that correlates with all piano methods and provides focused review for various state MTNA student achievement evaluations and the Carnegie Hall Royal Conservatory Achievement Program through Grade 2 and the Basic Rudiments theory test. (up through Grade 5 coming soon)
- The ability to pay for itself. Most members charge students at least $1.00 per month which more than covers the monthly subscription fee for medium-sized studios.
- Student Roster: Teachers can create up to 50* individual user names and passwords for their students...secure, confidential. Allows teachers to manage their student users as they start lessons or leave the studio.
- Automatic Score Reporting: Whenever a student logs in with their personal user name and password and plays a game all the way to the end--from your studio or from home,--their score is saved in the teacher's confidential score report. Teachers view their students' scores by logging in to the Teacher Resource Center (using their teacher user name and password) and by clicking "Score Report."
- Various teacher tools, teacher guides, assignment sheets and Student Pages save valuable lesson planning time.
- A Getting Started package that includes:
 - A reproducible Access Certificate and Letter to Parents that introduces your membership in MusicLearningCommunity.com, outlines the benefits for their children, and provides space for you to write log-in name and password information.
 - An Acceptable Use Policy statement to add to your Studio Policy--(optional) for parents to sign that they understand what constitutes "acceptable Internet use" in the studio.
- Email newsletter.
- Printable "High Score" wall charts for friendly in-studio competitions.

- Printable Certificates celebrate Achievement and Progress.
- Pedagogy techniques and tips.

*Additional user names and passwords available. $2.10 per month for each group of 5 additional log-ins.
